

Navigating the Green Transition: joining efforts for Sustainable Shipping

23 September 2025

Event organised back to back with the Green Shipping Day 2025

Venue: Port of Brussels (Quai des Armateurs 8, 1000 Brussels)

Working language: English

Timing: 16h-19h45 CET

16.00-16.20 CET	Scene setting
	- Introduction by Mathieu Bergé, Regional Councillor in charge of Ports, Nouvelle Aquitaine Region - Vincent Guerre, SEA Europe: what is at stake at EU level on Green Shipping - Jaap Gebraad, Secretary General of Waterborne technology platform: what future funding schemes for green shipping
16.20 – 16.40	Lessons from three transnational initiatives to green shipping
	- Geneviève Brisson, Delegate General of Québec to the EU: a green shipping corridor between Montreal and Antwerp - Sébastien Cann, Pole Mer Bretagne Atlantique: SMARTDEC, an EU Atlantic initiative for green shipping - Tim Scarbrough, Ricardo Consulting: Green shipping corridors UK-Ireland
16.40-17.00	Co-creation session 1 – How the upcoming EU strategies could support the greening of the Atlantic fleet?
	- Scene setting by Elise Wattrelot, CPMR - Interactive debate to set 3–5 actionable, consensus-based policy proposals
17.00-17.20	Co-creation session 2 – How to structure a flagship initiative to green shipping in the Atlantic Ocean?

	- Scene setting by Julia Coppla, Bilbao Port Lab - Interactive debate to set 3–5 actionable, consensus-based action proposals The co-creation will identify key stakeholders to mobilise, will develop a short-term plan and will reflect on funding options.
17.20 – 17.30	Conclusion
	- David Bolduc, President of Green Marine International - Antidia Citores, General Manager at Green Marine Europe
17.45 – 19.45 CET	A Visit to the Port of Brussels